Dear Sir or Madam:

This filing is being made on behalf of Qwest Corporation (QC), Entity Code T-01051B.

Enclosed for filing with the Commission is an original plus thirteen (13) copies of revisions to Qwest's Competitive Advanced Communications Services Price Cap Tariff.

As the market competition continues to grow, customers of all sizes and location are receiving competitive proposals. This revision proposes to add Individual Case Basis language to allow Qwest to also make competing offers.

Qwest respectfully requests that these proposed changes become effective June 25, 2009.

Acknowledgment and date of receipt of this transmittal are requested. A duplicate letter and self-addressed, stamped envelope are attached for this purpose. If you have any questions regarding this filing, please contact me directly.

Sincerely,

2. GENERAL REGULATIONS

2.6 DEFINITIONS (Cont'd)

Sustained Information Rate (SIR)

Denotes the average bit rate or speed at which user information can be transferred into and out of the ACS Network. It represents the maximum information transfer speed that can be sustained.

Transparent

In communications systems, that property which allows transmission of signals without changing their electrical characteristics or coding beyond the specified limits of the system design.

Uniform Service Order Code (USOC)

A three or five character alphabetic, numeric, or an alphanumeric code that identifies a specific item of service or equipment. Uniform Service Order Codes are used in the Company billing system to generate recurring rates and nonrecurring charges.

User-to-Network Interface

A frame relay industry-standard interface between an end user customer and a frame relay network.

Virtual Circuit

A logical transmission channel established to a network address. The logical channel exists for a period of time until either end of the channel terminates the transmission.

2.7 INDIVIDUAL CASE BASIS

The Company may offer individualized arrangements on a case-by-case basis where necessary to meet prices, terms, or conditions of service offered to its business customers by competitors.
